Teen Driver and Parent Contract

Full License

Parent/Guardian's Message to Teens

I understand that you're getting older and need more independence now. Driving is still dangerous and I worry because so many young people your age die in crashes every year. You are so precious to me. Even though you may be moving away to go to college or work, I still want you to be safe.

Teen's Promise

Every year thousands of new teen drivers like me get killed or badly injured in car crashes. I know you love me and want to protect me. You've made the following rules to keep me safe when I'm driving.

I have read each rule and initialed beside it to show I understand what it means and agree to obey it.

I will never:

- Drive after using illegal drugs.
- Drive after drinking any alcohol.
- Drive without my seatbelt fastened.
- Allow anyone to ride in my vehicle without a seatbelt.
- Talk on a cell phone or text while I am driving. If I need to make a call, I will pull over in a safe location first.
- Drive aggressively or show hostile behavior toward other drivers.
- Race or engage in stunts or other risky behavior.
- Conceal tickets, warnings or crashes from my parents.
- Allow anyone else to drive the car.
- Get in a car with a driver who is under the influence of drugs or alcohol.
- Wear headphones when I'm driving.
- Eat, drink or smoke while I'm driving.
- Allow anyone else to smoke in the car.
- Drive when I am exhausted.

The consequences of failing to abide by these rules will be:

I will always:

- Obey all speed limits, traffic signs, and traffic lights.
- Do my best to tell you when I feel pressured to do things that make me uncomfortable or worry me.
- Let you know where I am going, whom I am with, when I will arrive and when I will return. If my plans change, I will let you know as soon as possible.
- Keep the music and noise at a level where I can still hear noises and sirens.
- Try to make a plan for how I will get home safely before I go out.

The consequences of failing to abide by these rules will be:

Parent/Guardian’s Promise to Teen

I understand that you are getting older and need more independence now. I still worry because so many young people your age die in crashes every year and you are so precious to me. Because I love and trust you and want you to be safe:

I will always:

- Find safe transportation home if I am ever in a situation where I have had too much to drink.
- Wear my seatbelt and require everyone in my vehicle to wear his or hers.
- Avoid making decisions that will jeopardize my health and safety or cause you to lose your trust in me.
- Provide you with Safe Passage as defined below.

The Safe Passage Clause

If you are ever in a situation that threatens your safety and you contact me for a safe ride home, I promise to pick you up without question. It doesn't matter where you are, what time it is or what the situation is. I would rather drive across town at 3 a.m. to pick you up than identify your body in the morgue the next morning.

I will not yell at you or be angry because I want you to call me if you need help. We will postpone discussions about that situation until we can both discuss the issues in a calm, caring way.

If you cannot reach me when you need me, the following people have agreed to help you with advice, or a sober ride home regardless of the time or circumstances –

- Contact 1
 - Name: _____
 - Cell Phone Number: _____
 - Home Phone Number: _____
 - Address: _____
- Contact 2
 - Name: _____
